Program Registration

All programs and services at Northwestern Medicine Living Well Cancer Resources are provided at no cost to people impacted by cancer (patients, caregivers and family members), no matter where they are receiving medical care. Priority will be given to people in active treatment.

Register for programs at livingwell.nm.org. If you need help logging in, view instructions at bit.ly/lwlogin.

We recognize in-person programs may not be the right fit for you, and we encourage you to talk to your care team if you have questions. Virtual and on-site programs are indicated throughout this guide.

Please register for in-person classes at least 24 hours before class starts. If you cannot attend a class, please notify us at least 24 hours before the class starts.

On-site health and safety measures
Northwestern Medicine is committed to the health and safety of the communities we serve. Event details are subject to change based on community spread of COVID-19. We will follow Northwestern Medicine safety guidelines at the time of the event. Learn more at nm.org/safety.

Masking and screening
Everyone must wear a mask while in Living Well Cancer Resources. If you arrive wearing your own mask, we will ask you to replace or cover it with a mask provided by Living Well. We will screen participants for COVID-19 symptoms as they enter Living Well.

Counseling and Social Work Services

Living Well oncology-trained and licensed counselors and social workers specialize in supporting individuals, families, and children impacted by cancer. They are available to provide support to you at any phase of cancer care.

Counseling

The emotional experience of cancer treatment can be as challenging as the physical part. Our team of counseling professionals can help you discuss your thoughts, feelings, and reactions to a diagnosis. Both in-person and virtual counseling services are available.

To schedule an initial consultation, please email counseling@livingwellcrc.org.

Social work

Living Well’s licensed social workers connect patients to resources and education to help reduce stress and remove barriers to care. Resources are available to help you with:

- Transportation
- Lodging
- Managing household finances
- Employment challenges

Social workers are also available to help you cope after a diagnosis and treatment changes. To connect with a Living Well social worker, please email socialwork@livingwellcrc.org.

Stress Management

Live well by participating in our classes designed to promote self-care, help you stay in the moment and learn healthy coping strategies. Check the Stress Management Schedule on page 13 for dates and times.

MAY

Reshaping Your Self-Image
A cancer diagnosis can bring physical changes that can shift your perspective of your self-image. This two-part series presented by Nancy Nieto, LPC, NCC, and Cheri Hunt, art instructor, is aimed at helping process the changes that cancer brings in a safe and creative environment. Registration for both sessions is recommended, but not required.

Reshaping Your Self-Image: Part 1
In Person (Warrenville):
Wednesday, May 31, 6:00 – 8:00 pm
Part one of this two-part series will provide an opportunity to explore the impact of physical and emotional changes after a cancer diagnosis. It will give you a chance to express how those changes have shaped your self-image using artistic expression, written reflection and open discussion.

JUNE

Reshaping Your Self-Image: Part 2
In Person (Warrenville):
Wednesday, June 7, 6:00 – 8:00 pm
In part two of this two-part series, you will learn strategies to start navigating your path to self-love and self-acceptance. You will have an opportunity to create an artistic statement about their journey.

Living Well Book Club
Virtual: Tuesday, June 21, 5:00 – 6:15 pm
Nancy Nieto, LPC, NCC, Counselor, Northwestern Medicine Living Well Cancer Resources
This drop-in group will meet every other month to reflect on and discuss books that address the cancer experience. Please come prepared to join the conversation and share your thoughts.
Book: Between Two Kingdoms: A Memoir of a Life Interrupted (Hardcover) by Suleika Jaouad

JULY

Self-Care: Restoring Your Inner Self
Virtual: Wednesday, July 19, 6:30 – 8:00 pm
Nancy Nieto, LPC, NCC, Counselor, Northwestern Medicine Living Well Cancer Resources
When you experience sudden and major changes, they may affect how you take care of yourself. This workshop is intended to help you learn about different types of self-care and their benefits. You will also learn how to implement your self-care practices.
AUGUST

Emotional Release and Journaling
In Person (Warrenville):
Wednesdays, August 2, 9, 23 and 30, 10:00 am–Noon
Cheri Hunt, Art Instructor, Northwestern Medicine Living Well Cancer Resources

Touch Therapy

Talk to your physician about any concerns you may have before scheduling a touch therapy appointment at Living Well in Geneva or Warrenville. Your physician must complete a Medical Release Form and Living Well must receive it before your first appointment. A Release of Liability Form is also required for on-site services. We offer a maximum of five touch therapy appointments for patients diagnosed with cancer.

▶ Make an appointment at livingwellcrc.org/touch-therapy for any of the following types of touch therapy.

Massage
A light, relaxing massage can be enjoyed by people at all stages of cancer. Massages have been shown to:
- Reduce stress, anxiety and depression
- Help with circulation
- Boost your immune system
- Reduce pain and fatigue
- Improve sleep

Facials
Experience the benefits of a gentle, hydrating facial given by a licensed, oncology-trained esthetician.

Reiki
Reiki is a gentle relaxation therapy that involves a practitioner using their hands to direct and improve the flow of energy to help support your body’s own healing process.

Reflexology
Reflexology is the practice of applying appropriate pressure to specific areas of the feet that link to different parts of the body and corresponding organs. This technique can decrease pain, stress, nausea, anxiety and depression while boosting circulation that can increase energy.
Healing Through Art

Art is a beautiful way to express yourself, explore untapped creativity, manage stress and connect with others. All Living Well classes are led by our art instructor, Cheri Hunt, and no previous art experience is needed. Supply lists will be emailed to you after you register. Attendance throughout each series is highly encouraged but not required. Check the Healing Through Art Schedule on page 20 for class dates and times.

Wig Boutique and Beautiful You Workshops

At Living Well, we are committed to supporting you throughout your cancer journey. That includes offering wig consultations and workshops to help you feel better and more confident.

Beautiful You Workshops
Living Well Geneva
Wednesdays, May 17, June 21, July 19
4:30–6:00 pm

Jenny Burns, Salon Owner, Stylist and Makeup Artist

If you are experiencing hair loss from cancer treatment, Beautiful You is designed to help you feel beautiful inside and out. Jenny Burns, a Geneva-based salon owner, stylist and makeup artist, will help you learn how to care for your scalp and hair regrowth. She will also work with you to choose the best-fitting wig, accessorize with scarves and hats, and recreate natural-looking eyebrows with an eye pencil.

► Register for Beautiful You workshops at livingwell.nm.org.
Nutrition Classes

Living Well offers nutrition classes designed to help patients with cancer and their caregivers make informed choices about nutrition and move through cancer treatment into survivorship.

Classes are virtual via Microsoft Teams or Facebook Live. They are led by Living Well dietitians, Nancy Zawicki, RD, LDN, MS, and Mary Zupke, RD, LDN, MS, FAND. Classes include a cooking demonstration that complements each cancer-related topic.

MAY

Gardening: Plan Now, Harvest Later
Virtual: Wednesday, May 3, 1:00 – 2:00 pm
Tending to a garden can provide an opportunity for healing, stress reduction, physical exercise and endless learning. Learn tips and tricks of planting a garden that will bring you a bountiful harvest!

It’s Picnic Time: Make It Plant-Based
Virtual: Wednesday, May 17, 6:00 – 7:00 pm
Eating a plant-based diet improves the health of your gut so you are better able to absorb the nutrients from food that support your immune system and reduce inflammation. Learn how to take these foods on the go and enjoy your summer in a healthy way.

JUNE

Super Salads Using Super Foods
Virtual: Wednesday, June 14, 1:00 – 2:00 pm
Superfoods offer exceptional health benefits and help promote health by increasing your immune function and decreasing your chance of disease or progression. Implement more superfoods into your diet with these great salad recipes.

The Right Balance: Exercise, Nutrition and Lifestyle
Virtual: Wednesday, June 28, 1:00 – 2:00 pm
Sleep, regular exercise and nutrition all have a direct impact on our health and well-being, each linking to the other. Keeping them in balance is especially important when we face stressful times in our lives.

JULY

Breakfast Anytime: Easy, Nutritious and Budget-Friendly
Virtual: Wednesday, July 12, 1:00 – 2:00 pm
Many studies have linked eating breakfast to good health, including better memory and concentration, lower levels of “bad” low-density lipoprotein cholesterol. Studies have also shown that eating breakfast can lower chances of getting diabetes and heart disease. Learn how to make your breakfasts easy, nutritious and on budget.

Tomato Season: A Wonderful Time of Year
Virtual: Wednesday, July 19, 1:00 – 2:00 pm
Loaded with lycopene, tomatoes are a healthy way to enjoy summer! Learn new and fresh ways to add tomatoes to your menu.
AUGUST

Hydration: The Many Options of Meeting Needs
Virtual: Wednesday, August 9, 6:00 – 7:00 pm
Hydration is so much more than just drinking water! Learn how fluids carry nutrients to cells, flush bacteria from the bladder and prevent constipation. Staying hydrated makes treatment side effects less severe and lowers your chances of missing or delaying cancer treatments.

Eating Healthy and Living Well: Mediterranean Meal Options
Virtual: Wednesday, August 23, 1:00 – 2:00 pm
The Mediterranean diet, with its emphasis on fresh vegetables and fruit, whole grains, legumes, olive oil, fish, poultry and lean meats, provides an array of health benefits, research suggests. Find out how to get started!

Nutrition Consultations
Sandie Hunter, RD, LDN, MS, CSO, a clinical nutrition manager at Northwestern Medicine, can answer your questions and help you learn about nutrition recommendations that can help you during cancer treatment. Consultations are limited to people diagnosed with cancer.

To make an appointment, please complete the form at bit.ly/lwnutrition. You may also email your questions to askadietitian@livingwellcrc.org.

Chair Yoga and Standing Balance
Hybrid (Geneva): Mondays, 5:00–5:45 pm
Hybrid (Warrenville): Tuesdays, 11:15 am–Noon
Standing time is associated with improved cardiometabolic health, and a lower risk of all-cause mortality and cardiovascular disease. This class encourages you to practice standing balance exercises in a safe environment following a seated mobility session.
Movement for Bone Health
Hybrid (Geneva): Wednesdays, 10:15 – 11:00 am
Hybrid (Warrenville): Tuesdays, 10:15 – 11:00 am
Hybrid (Warrenville): Thursdays, 11:15 am – Noon
People who have had cancer treatment and those who have osteoporosis and osteopenia are often at a higher risk for bone fractures with falls. This class emphasizes strength training to help you maintain bone density. Standing and mat work (on the ground) are included in this class.

Chair Fitness for Lymphedema and Neuropathy
Hybrid (Warrenville): Tuesdays, 12:15 – 1:00 pm
Lymph fluid relies on movement and the contraction of your muscles to make it flow. This class will address the movements necessary to help your lymphatic system and stimulate receptors in your hands and feet to reduce the pain and neuropathy-related symptoms.

Restorative Yoga
Hybrid (Geneva): Mondays, 6:00 – 6:45 pm
Hybrid (Warrenville):
Fourth Wednesday of each month, 5:45 – 6:15 pm
Practice restorative poses designed to relax and restore your whole body. Each pose will be held for a period to release tension and deepen relaxation. This class may include standing and mat yoga poses.

Chair Yoga and Guided Relaxation for Stress Relief
Hybrid (Geneva): Wednesdays, 11:15 am – Noon
Research has found that stress causes us to age more quickly. Learn stress reduction methods in this fully guided practice of seated yoga postures followed by a guided relaxation practice.

Tai Chi Mediation in Motion
In Person (Geneva): Mondays, 12:30 – 1:15 pm
In Person (Warrenville): Thursdays, 12:30 – 1:15 pm
This class uses a gentle form of exercise focused on maintaining strength, flexibility and balance while helping to reduce stress and anxiety. This is a standing practice.

Face the Fight (Shadowboxing Fitness)
In Person (Warrenville):
Wednesdays, 11:00 – 11:45 am
Delilah Matos, Certified USA Boxing Coach
Build confidence, regain trust in your body and reduce stress. Join Delilah Matos for a low-impact, non-contact shadowboxing class that will have you feeling empowered and ready to face any obstacle with impact.

Work out with an Exercise Class Pass for on-site classes
Living Well has an exercise class pass that enables you to choose up to 50 on-site yoga and/or fitness classes. These classes can help you increase your flexibility and range of motion, support your healing and reduce stress.
We will notify you when you are getting close to the limit of on-site classes. You can take an unlimited number of virtual exercise classes.
